A FELLOW named Barnard Coyna absconded yes money. Patrick, who lives in East Wheeling, tells us that he had taken the fellow into his house, on the score of early acquaintances, and boarded him for several months, and the spalpeen rewarded his charity by stealing his money, the saving of many days' work. Patrick moreover wishes to warn his friends and fellow citizens against the seductive ns the nos and fellow cluzens against the seductive wiles of Barney, who, he says, is a comely looking chap, from 18 to 20 years of age, 5 feet 7 inches high, with long face, sharp features and brown eyes and hair, and had on a jean's coat and plaid pants with green stripes. Look out for him and send him back to Patrick, though Patrick says he would nefer his money to the snahuem. would prefer his money to the spalpeen.

Washington, D. C., Sep. 18, 1852.

John Wilson Esq., has to-day been appointed by the President, Commissioner of the General Land office, vice Judge Butterfield, resigned. This will be gratifying news to Mr. Wilson's numerous friends in the west, as it has been here, for a more descriptions of the statement of friends in the west, as it has been here, for a more deservedly popular man cannot be found. A better selection for this important position could not have been made, requiring as it does an intimate knowledge of the great land business of the country, and a service of some twenty years in this Department in all the different branches, has fully qualified Mr. Wilson for the place. He is a self-made man, having worked his way from the lowest to the highest position in the office. #### THE PLATFORMS.

THE WHIG PLATFORM.

THURSDAY MORNING SEPTEMBER 23, 1852.

THE WHIG PLATFORM.

The Whigs of the United States, in convention assempted firmly adhering to the great conservative republican principles by which they are controlled and governed, and now, as ever, retying upon the intelligence of the American people, with an abiding confidence in their capacity for self government, and their continued devotion to the Constitution and the Union, do processin the following as the rotifical sertiments and determinations, for the establishes as upplied with the Daily Intelligencer by Mr. F. A. Sears, at the rate of TEN CENTS A WEEK. This will afford an accommodation to many who do not wish to subscribe by the year. Mr. S. will supply his subscribers punctually and at an early hour.

T. M. Gally, Esq., will address a Meeting at the North Wheeling Scott and Graham Pole, near Sweeuey's Glass House, on To-morrow evening.—Assemble at the roar of the 'taby-waker.'

The Finale of the German Congress was a meeting at the City Hall, last night, which was largely attended. Seven speeches were made in German, and one in English by Mr. Goopp, of Philadelphia.

School Levy.—At a meeting of the School Combining of the School Combining and the principles of the experces of Ohio county, on Tuesday evening.

Government should be conducted upon principles of the school repetitive and to the proper for cash upon foreign ground. That our myscion as a Republic is not to propogate our opinions, or myscion as a Republic is not to propogate our opinions, or myscion as a Republic is not to propogate our opinions, or myscion as a Republic is not to propogate our opinions, or myscion as a Republic is not to propogate our opinions, or myscion as a Republic is not to propogate our opinions, or myscion as a Republic is not to propogate our opinions, or myscion as a Republic is not to propogate our opinions, or myscion as a Republic is not to propogate our opinions, or myscion as a Republic is not to propogate our opinions, or myscion as a Republic is not to propogate ou ities, as they would retain, their self-respect, and the respect which they claim, and will enforce, from foreign powers.

6. Government should be conducted upon principles of the strictest economy, and revenue sufficient for the expenses thereof, in time of peace, ought to be mainly derived from a duty on imports, and not from direct taxes; and in teving such duties, sound policy requires a just discrimination and protection from fraud by specific duties, when practicable, whereby suitable encouragement may be assured to American industry, equally to all classes and to all portions of the country.

6. The Constitution vents in Congress the power to open and repair harbors, and remove obstructions from navigable rivers; and it is expedient that Congress shall exercise that power whenever such improvements are necessary for the common defence or for the protection and facility of commerce with foreign nations or among the States; such improvements being, in every instance, national and general in their character.

7. The Federal and State Governments are parts of one system, alike necessary for the common prosperity, peace, and security, and ought to be regarded alike with a cordial, habitual, and immoveable attachment. Hespect for the authority of each, and acquiescence in the constitutional measures of each, are duties required by the page of the subjects to which they relate, and so fate, and individual well.

8. The series of acts of the Stat Congress, commonly known as the Compromise or Adjustment, (the act for the recovery of fucitives from labor included,) are received and acquiesced in by the Whigs of the United States as a final settlement, in principle and substance, of the subjects to which they relate, and so far as these acts are concerned, we will maintain them, and insist on their enforcement, until time and experience shall demonstrate the necessity of further registation to guard against the evasion of the which they relate, and so far as these acts are consequent, will maintain them, and insist on their enforcement, it if time and experience shall demonstrate the necessity further legislation to guard against the evasion of the was on the one hand, and the abuse of their powers on was immairing their present efficiency to carry laws on the one hand, and the abuse of their powers on the other, not impairing their present efficiency to carry out the requirements of the Constitution, and we deprecate all further agitation of the questions thus settled, as dangerous to our peace, and will discountenance all efforts to continue or renew such agitation, whenever, wherever, or however made; and we will maintain this settlement as essential to the nationality of the Whig party and the integrity of the Union.

DEMOCRATIC PLATFORM.

1. "Resolved, That the American Democracy place their trust in the intelligence, the patriotism, and the discrimifederalism, under whatever name or form, which seeks to palsy the will of the constituent, and which conceives no imposture too monstrous for the public credulity.

111. "Resolved, therefore, That, entertaining these views, the Democratic party of this Union, through their delegates assembled in general convention, coming together in a spirit of concord, of devotion to the doctrines and aith of a free representative Government, and appealing to their fellow-citizens for the rectifude of their finentions, renew and re-assert before the American people the declarations of principles avowed by them when, on former occasions, in general convention, they have presented their candidates for the popular suffrages:

"I. That the Federal Government is one offimited powers, derived solely from the Constitution, and the grants of power therein ought to be strictly construed by all the departments and agents of the Government; and that it is inexpedient and dangerous to exercise doubtful constitutions are well as the Constitution of the Government of General Part the Constitution of conference on the General Part to Constitution does not conference on the General Part to Constitution does not conference on the General Part to Constitution does not conference on the General Part to Constitution does not conference on the General Part to Constitution does not conference on the General Part to Constitution does not conference on the General Part to Constitution does not conference on the General Part to Constitution does not conference on the General Part to Constitution does not conference on the General Part to Constitution does not conference on the General Part to Constitution does not conference on the General Part to Constitution does not conference on the General Part to Constitution does not conference on the General Part and Constitution does not conference on the General Part and Constitution does not conference on the General Part and Constitution does not conference on the Constitution does not conference on the C
